

LEGO® SERIOUS PLAY® WORKSHOPS FOR CORPORATE & PROFESSIONAL GROUPS

Bring your team together for a hands-on development day that sparks deeper thinking, richer conversations, and practical application.

These in-house LEGO® Serious Play® workshops are designed specifically for experienced facilitators, trainers, coaches, and educators who want to confidently explore and apply the methodology within their own organisation.

By learning together, your team builds shared capability, psychological safety, and clear pathways for real-world application, all in a bespoke experience, at your venue, on a date that suits you. Over the next few pages, you'll find two workshop options to support every stage of your LEGO® Serious Play® journey.

LEGO® SERIOUS PLAY® FOR CORPORATE L&D TEAMS LOCATIONS

Where can these workshop take place?

As much as I'd love to deliver these workshops across the globe, I'm a firm believer in maintaining a healthy work-life balance, so I focus on a specific travel area.

- If you're within Hampshire (the purple circle), everything is straightforward and travel costs don't apply.
- Locations within the wider pink circle are still possible, with some consideration for additional travel expenses.
- If you're outside that range, I may not be the right fit geographically, however, I'm part of a brilliant network of like-minded LEGO® Serious Play® facilitators, so it's always worth getting in touch.

How it works:

1. Get in touch: Let's make the workshop bespoke to your team and your needs
2. Choose your workshop format: one-day, or two-day.
3. Pick a date and location: See map for location I work in England & Wales.
4. Invite your team: Up to 12 participants for the one-day or two-day options.
5. We build the day together: You provide the venue and refreshments; I bring the bricks, expertise, and facilitation.

Why Work with Nikie?

Because you're not just booking a workshop, you're partnering with someone who:

- Specialises in empowering facilitators, trainers, and coaches
- Creates psychologically safe, energising learning environments
- Makes complex methods accessible, practical, and immediately usable
- Brings warmth, clarity, and a little Curious Lighthouse magic to every session

"If you're thinking about adding LSP to your facilitator portfolio, look no further than working with Nikie! I'd wholeheartedly recommend her as an expert in this space and will definitely seek her out again for more. Her practical, no nonsense and facilitator-friendly style is really refreshing and most welcome. Thank you so much!" Elaine Gosden - CEO of BluGnu Consulting
